GRADUATION PROGRAM IS ANNOUNCED

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—Try to buy a copy of the last issue of The Yale Review at any Washington book store. It is almost impossible. They are as scarce as legal liquor on the night of December 5. The book stores will tell you, if you press them, that every one of their Yale Reviews was purchased by the Japanese Embassy.

There's a reason.

The last issue contains two significant articles. One is on "Japanese Strategy in the Far East" by General Peyton March, once military observer with the Japanese army during the Russo-Japanese War. The other is on "Manchurian Diplomacy" by John V. A. MacMurray, former American Minister to China, now minister to the Baltic States.

MacMurray says that Japanese policy may develop into "a grandiose imperialism which would be a menace to the world." General March diagnoses the possibility of war between Japan and Russia and indicates that Japan would be the winner.

STILL SUPREME

The last presidential election saw the powerful force of the Mellon-Reed machine in Pittsburgh overthrown.

Despite this defeat, Mellon and Reed are still sitting in the driver's seat as far as the Roosevelt Administration is concerned. Two recent developments indicate this one well-known, the other so far secret.

The well-known development is the fact that Mellon's Aluminum Trust has been able to hold out against the NRA. The development, so far secret, is one regarding Pittsburgh glass.

Under Republican Administration the tariff protecting Pittsburgh glass was boosted fifty per cent. The boost was widely criticized, especially by Senator Costigan of Colorado. Finally he pushed a resolution through the Senate calling upon the Tariff Commission to investigate the cost of production of Pittsburgh glass in order to see whether Pittsburgh was really menaced by foreign competition.

The Tariff Commission, still under a Republican chairman, recommended a decrease. The decision was unanimous—three Republicans voting with the Democrats. They found foreign firms could not easily compete. Furthermore they recommended a decrease.

Hearing Denied in Purchase of Wines

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—UP—A review of the California supreme court ruling which held that a contract Frank Giannini had made for sale of 80,000 gallons of sacramental wines for non-beverage purposes violated the 18th amendment, was denied today by the supreme court.

Giannini had contracted to set aside the wine in a bonded warehouse for M. W. Brashers, who paid $5,600 on the contract. Brashers later sued to recover the money, holding the transaction illegal. The state courts upheld Brashers' contention.

Chief Upheld For Action On Circular

C. T. Moore and Mrs. Violet Orr of the Communist party, and about fifteen other adherents, appeared before the council last evening, and asked that the recent "circular" ordinance be amended. They stated they took a copy of a circular they wished to distribute to Chief of Police E. L. Jones, and he refused them a permit. They claimed such action was an abridgment of their rights, and asserted the ordinance was adopted at the behest of the industries of the city.

City Attorney Carlson, said the chief denied the permit on his opinion that it contained libelous matter, and if action was brought as a result of statements made in the circular, the city might be made a party.

The council members were of the opinion they had to rely on the advice of the city attorney, and denied any relief to the protesters.

Councilmen W. W. Scott, Frank E. Tiller, Otto R. Ludwig, and Mattie Chandler, said there was no truth in the statements, that the industries, and particularly the Standard Oil, forced the adoption of the ordinance, claiming not a word had been said to them about the matter, and they acted on their own judgment.

Carlson Has Debate Over Water Project

Thomas M. Carlson, well known Richmond attorney, yesterday engaged in a debate with Fred Atchard before the Oakland Kiwanis club on the referendum on the $17,000,000 central valley water project.

In the debate, which was held at an Oakland hotel, Carlson strongly urged the adoption of the measure which will be voted on December 19.

Athearn is one of the outstanding critics of the bill. This evening Carlson will go to Martinez where he will debate the same question with John V. Powers of San Francisco.

BEAUTY IS HELD IN SLAYING

WIFE UNDER QUIZ AFTER MATE DEATH

HANFORD, Dec. 11.—UP—Mrs. Lucille McCarty, widow of the slain J. McCarty, a Santa Clara county rancher, was questioned by Sheriff W. A. Buckner, today as he sought to solve slaying of the rancher as he lay in bed at his wife's side.

The sheriff asked her charges against the slain husband, but she said she was "not satisfied" with the slaying.

The told officers she was awakened by her husband, who said he wanted her not to go on the night, and the intruder left the house. When the husband had gone, she found her husband with four bullet wounds in the back. He died at a hospital.

Footprints leading from a window to an orchard, where an automobile had been parked, partially substantiated her story. Police hunted for four days and found a Chinese rancher, who had once rented a vineyard from McCarty. McCarty muttered the word "Chinese" just before he died.

An inquest is to be held Wednesday. McCarty's body will then be taken to Portland, Ore., where he lived for 10 years, for burial.

Entire Coast In Grasp of Winter Storm

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 11.—UP—The entire coast was right in the grip of winter's first onslaught tonight.

Heavy rains and showers were general over the entire slope. Floods, an outgrowth of the rains did damage estimated at $1,000,000 in Washington. Sixty persons were feared to have perished. Traffic was disrupted in Washington and Oregon as the rains washed out numerous bridges.

In California heavy rains and gale-like winds invaded the state tonight.

The storm, according to the weather bureau, gave no indication of let up. Major E. R. Bowie, of the U. S. weather bureau, said that the disturbance is of large intensity, with the severest part centered in the ocean 500 miles off the Oregon coast.

Winds of gale-like velocity and driving rains were reported as ships at sea.

F.D.R. PLANS LIQUOR WAR

ROOSEVELT ASKS LOWER RUM TAXES

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—UP—President Roosevelt announced today that liquor tax law would be revised, at a conference with congressional leaders today at the White House.

The President announced leaders of the Senate Finance Committee and the House Ways and Means Committee, to the White House at 10:30 a. m. today.

On departing, Franklin Del. Harrison, chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, said:

"We discuss the tax situation generally. The President is leaving it up to Congress and to the committee of Congress to fix the tax rate. He wants revenue for the government but what is more important, he wants to put the bootlegger out of business."

Harrison indicated that the joint committee would be compelled to recommend a lower rate than the $250 a gallon on distilled spirits suggested by the President's inter-departmental liquor committee.

Considerable opposition has been registered by congressional leaders to the proposed 250c levy. It was charged the tax would raise the price of rum to 50c a gallon, which the ordinary consumer would turn to his head.

VALIDITY OF STATE SALES TAX UPHeld

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 11.—UP—Validity of California's retail sales tax was upheld today when Superior Judge Dal Lemmon sustained a demurrer of State Treasurer Charles G. Johnson in a suit brought against him by N. H. Schur, operator of a "tango" game at Santa Monica.

Judge Lemmon held that the tango game involved the sale of tangible property.

In reference to a claim of the plaintiff that the law had not been passed by a two-thirds vote of the legislature, Judge Lemmon held:

"Power to levy taxes is such an inherently necessary activity that this court cannot be led to place a restriction on that legislative power which does not necessarily follow the exact language of the constitution."

The court also held that the law is constitutional, because it is not necessary that general laws have universal operation, and that it may provide certain exemptions based upon some natural or intrinsic or constitutional distinction.

The decision was expected to play an important part in deciding a series of similar suits in this state. Schur had sought return of $1220 paid as sales tax under protest.

CITY TENNIS CONTESTS SEE MANY UPSETS

Two major upsets featured the play in the tennis matches played on the Richmond City Hall courts Saturday and Sunday, and they were both in the women's singles matches.

Upset number one came when Helen Dunning, seeded number two, crumbled before the steadiness of her left-handed rival Peggy Marvin, to lose the match in a three set by scores of 2-6, 6-3, 6-3. Following this match Gertrude Heise, seeded number one, and generally considered the winner of the women's event, fell before the patient and never die attitude of Ruth Fenix.

Miss Fenix, young in tournament experience, met all the varied tricking of her more experienced opponent, and by sheer persistence in getting everything back and forcing Miss Heise to error, won in straight sets, but with every point bitterly contested by scores of 9-7, 6-3.

The victories of Peggy Marvin and Ruth Fenix put them in the finals of the women's singles which will be played next week.

While there were no major upsets in the men's events most of the favorites had tough going. For instance Darrow Sutton, seeded number two, advanced to the quarter finals of the men's singles after one of the longest battles ever played on the local courts, when he defeated Paul Potts by scores of 6-3, 15-17, 6-2. Jules Acardi by wins over George Tevato and Peter Pedrotti on Saturday, and by defeating Bob Easton, Sunday advanced to the semi-finals of the singles, and Fred Childs by defeating Reese Hays, Larry Phillips and Sam Corse, also placed himself in the semi-finals of the lower division.

Clarence Garabotti, local high school player, showed good form, to down Louis Michitti in a bitterly contested three set match by scores of 1-6, 6-1, 6-3. Irving and Darrow Sutton advanced to the finals of the men's doubles by wins over Potts and Hays in first round and Bertel Peterson and Louis Michitti in the second round. They will meet the winners of Jules Acardi and Bob Easton vs. Stanley Poulson and Fred Childs in the final next week.

Perfect tennis weather aided the local committee of A. S. Remond and Lawrence Phillips in keeping all three court busy from 9 A. M. until 1 P. M. The splendid sportsmanship and cooperation of the players and spectators, promises to make the first Richmond City Tennis tournament an outstanding success, and added by Major Ivan Hill's leadership and the prize donations from local merchants, the tournament will not only be an annual one, but will be semi-annual which will supply the tournament experience badly needed by some of the promising youngsters.

The following were the matches played Sunday:

Fred Childs def. Sam Corse, 6-3, 8-6 in quarter-finals.

Jules Acardi def. Bob Easton 6-0, 6-2, in quarter-finals.

First Round: Stanley Poulson def. Kenneth Gengler 6-3, 2-6, 6-1. Stanley Pressler def. Joe Jacov, 6-2, 6-0. Fred Childs def. Reese Hays, 6-1, 6-1. Clarence Garabotti def. W. Schimpff, 8-6, 6-3. Paul Potts def. Drake, 10-8, 6-3. Irving and Darrow Sutton def. 3-6, 6-0. Potts and Reese Hays 6-2, 6-1. Louis Michitti and Bertel Peterson def. Peter Pedrotti and George Tevato 6-2, 6-1.

Second Round: Bob Easton def. Stanley Poulson 6-1, 6-1. Irving Sutton def. Stanley Pressler 6-2, 6-3. Fred Childs def. Larry Phillips by default. Clarence Garabotti def. Goldsworthy, 10-8, 6-0. Louis Michitti 1-6, 6-4, 8-3. Darrow Sutton def. Paul Potts 6-2, 15-17. Moitoza, 6-3, 6-0. Sutton and Sutton def. Michitti and Peterson 7-5, 6-2. Larry Phillips and Ruth Fenix def. Mr. Corse, 10-8, 6-3. Dunning 6-1, 6-2.

Semi-finals of women's singles: Ruth Fenix def. Gertrude Heise 9-7, 6-3. Peggy Marvin def. Helen Dunning 8-6, 6-3, 6-3.

Speaking Of Sports

CHICAGO, Dec. 11—UP—The Chicago White Sox, who led the Hot Stove league last winter, have been "on sale" or "trade" since the clubhouse lockers of most of their 1934 players.

Ponessa is a good magician, but he never has come into the Honing phase of the black art. He never should be handcuffed. He talks in his sleep, and hopes some major league magnate may overhear him.

MURDER MAY BE LAID TO GOV. ROLPH

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 11. (AP)—Opponents of Governor James Rolph Jr. stand condemning the lynching of two men at San Jose, Calif., tentatively charged with murder today to charge him with murder.

Ellis O. Jones of Los Angeles, representing the American Civil Liberties Union, said the executive committee of the union, of which he is a member, may make the attempt.

"We believe the governor's act can be made the basis for a murder complaint," said Jones. He pointed out that the governor had refused to send troops to San Jose to protect Jack Holmes and Thomas Thurmond, kidnappers of Brooke L. Hart.

Governor Rolph seemed unmoved when informed of Jones' assertion.

"That's all right," said the governor. "I can't stop anything like that. And I will not retract any statements I have made regarding the lynching."

Jones and A. L. Worn of Los Angeles, the latter attorney for the American Civil Liberties Union, had wired the governor demanding that he cease renegeing that he would pardon anyone convicted of participating in the lynchings. They also had demanded that the governor retract published statements repeating his stand that the lynchings were for the best in the battle against kidnapping.

Jones and Worn are to meet District Attorney Fred L. Thomas of Santa Clara county on Tuesday. They said they would produce witnesses and evidence that will identify some of the leaders of the mob that hanged the pair.

Richmond Couple Quietly Married At Rites Saturday

Patrick R. Hogan claimed as his bride Miss Edna Frankie on Saturday night at a ceremony performed at the church of St. Paul in San Pablo. Rev. E. Tozzi read the service.

The bride was pretty in a dress of blue crepe, made hostess style with large sleeves from the waistline, and she wore a corsage of orchids. She carried her late mother's prayer book and rosary beads. Mrs. Fred Bender, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor. Her dress was of gold crepe with brown accessories and her corsage was of gardenias.

Harry Sullivan was best man for Hogan. The bride was given in marriage by her father, John Frankie. The ceremony was followed by an informal reception at the Frankie home, 2311 Clinton avenue, at which a buffet supper was served. The house was decorated in a profusion of greens and flowers.

The young couple will establish their home at 225 Twenty-sixth street. The bride is the daughter of John Frankie and the late Mrs. Frankie, and received her education in the Richmond schools. Hogan is embalmist at the Ryan funeral home, having come to Richmond four years ago from Kansas, where he was educated. He is the son of Michael Hogan of Kansas.

tion was to eliminate the bootlegger and the racketeer. Revenues, while important, were secondary, the President insisted.

The conference and the President, Harrison said, all were agreed that the $5 a gallon tariff on liquor from abroad was too high and indicated that a readjustment in liquor tariffs might be expected.

MEET COMMITTEE

Those called into conference were chairman Doughton of the House ways and means committee; Speaker Rainey; Harrison, Senator King, Democrat, Utah; Joseph H. Choate, chairman of the federal alcohol control administration; and Edward G. Lowry, a member of the alcohol board.

Choate and Lowry will appear before the joint congressional committee tomorrow to present the views of the administration on the proposed liquor tax program. The absence of treasury officials before the committee today which led Treadway to criticize their delay, was explained by Harrison as being due to a desire by the authorities for more time to prepare their recommendations.

URGE ACTION

Treadway stalked out of the room saying he would stay away until "the treasury men find time to enlighten us." The committee then called L. H. Parker, a member of the joint committee on internal revenue. He testified there are between 40,000,000 and 50,000,000 gallons of illegal whiskey in the hands of bootleggers today which would be sold at "very low prices before it is thrown in the gutter."

With this in mind, he urged the committee to consider a tax low enough to stimulate purchases of legal liquor.

FIGHT IS ON

He estimated that 140,000,000 gallons of whiskey would be consumed in the next year, of which approximately 20,000,000 would have to be imported. Prior to national prohibition, Parker said, importation of liquor averaged 3,500,000 annually.

Committee members were sharply divided on the proposed $2.60 gallonage tax.

Senator Harrison admitted it would be difficult to administer the state rebate plan. Representatives McClintic, Democrat, Oklahoma and Shellenberger, Democrat, Nebraska, opposed the proposed $2.60 levy, favoring taxes low enough to keep the price of liquor to $1.50 a quart.

Seven Saved From Death Under River

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 11.—UP—Seven workmen trapped 100 feet below the Missouri river were brought to the surface alive late today.

First examination indicated none of the men was injured, despite their entombment for more than two hours.

The men were placed immediately in pressure tanks to ward off any attacks of "the bends," a dread ailment which frequently attacks underground workers.

The men were rescued in spite of a fire which raged 25 feet above their heads and which cut off their air supply.

The names of the rescued men were given as J. J. Murphy, J. B. Murphy, "Bull" O'Dell, A. Bradley, J. Bradley, James Martin and Phil Benny.

Originally it was believed eight men were trapped, but a check showed only seven in the shaft when timbers above them caught fire and caved in.

Application for a marriage license was filed yesterday at Martinez by Leo Marcollo and Louis Plinez, of Richmond.

RUM BUYERS DUPED SAYS S. F. REPORT

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 11.—UP—Preliminary investigations revealed here today that drinkers are being duped when they buy liquor from some retail dealers.

Dr. J. C. Geiger, city health officer, termed the quality of the liquor on the San Francisco market "reprehensible."

Dr. Geiger tested three bottles of whiskey. One, he said, had a base of 25 percent of good, aged bonded whiskey. The other two contained alcohol, water coloring and flavoring, he asserted.

"Most of the gin on the market today is of the bathtub variety," said Dr. Geiger.

None of the samples tested were from drug stores. They were bought at random. Other purchases are being made and the liquor will be tested to give a comprehensive survey.

No traces of poison were found in the liquor tested, Dr. Geiger said.
